PITILESS PROBE LAYS BARE HER PAST LIFE.

Jerome's Far-Reaching Plummet Sounds Inmost Soul of Evelyn Thaw.

No Mercy Shown in Fearful Examination to Which Wife of Stanford White's Slayer Is Subjected—Secret Sins and Wretched Guilt of Other Years Dragged Before the Light—Husband Hides His Head.

JEROME was persistent and unmerciful yesterday in his cross-examination of Evelyn Thaw. He probed deeply into her past, bringing out many new facts in connection with her relations with Stanford White and Harry Thaw prior to her marriage.

She admitted having traveled in Europe with Thaw and her mother on a letter of credit from Stanford White.

Mrs. Thaw admitted also that she had frequently had improper associations with White subsequent to her experience in the mirrored bedroom. She declared it was against her will, and that on each occasion she was partly intoxicated.

Thaw covered his face with his hands and Evelyn wept bitterly during the examination.

The witness made a number of damaging admissions. The champagne which she had implied was drugged and "tasted bitter," was admitted yesterday to have been no different from other champagne.

It was declared in New York that Mrs. Thaw is to receive $200,000 for testifying in her husband's behalf.

The fact came out last night that Mrs. Holman, mother of Mrs. Thaw, personally is directing Jerome's cross-examination, giving him suggestions for the grilling every night by telephone.

HER PAYMENT MADE FOR PAST.

BY SAMUEL HOPKINS TIMES.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the open market place, and with the burning coin of shame, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw made part payment today on the tally of her past sins and errors.

Nothing more sickening, more appalling, has ever been seen in a courtroom than this slow, piece-meal stripping naked of a woman's soul.

However one might condemn the unhappy girl-wife for her mendacity, it was impossible not to pity her for the deadly poisoned truth as she told it, and, as for a climax, she witnessed her husband in her own shame—yes, in deeper shame, by exhibiting him, with reluctant, shrinking words, in the role of a man who, to save himself from the consequences of his own folly, had sought to profit by his future wife's appeal to his betrayal—an appeal which in itself was inferentially a forgery.

In the light of the cablegram sent by Harry Thaw, or Evelyn, or both, to Stanford White, begging for his influence to dissuade the American Embassy in London from interrupting, by a charge of abduction, the unwedded pair's pleasure jaunt on the continent—to this man at the very mention of whose name Harry Thaw was wont to go mad with rage and grief, tearing his hair, pacing the floor and moaning, denouncing him as a murderer of virtue and chastity—only to make him the object of this petty and despicable appeal when trouble was to be faced—in the light of this it is hard to see how the defendant can make any further call upon the sympathy of healthy-minded men.

There is a short, ugly, old English word describing a man for which the paindest fad in hell would not find a word in the dictionary.

BEALE TELLS OF TRAGEDY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 21.—Truxton Beale, who was with the Thaw party the night of the tragedy, came down from his ranch at Tejon, near here, late this afternoon, and gave out the following interview as to his connection with the case:

"My deposition has not been taken. I was passing through New York on my annual visit to my son in Maine. A friend introduced me to the Thaws at a restaurant. They asked me to join them at dinner, which I did, and afterward I went to the roof garden with them.

"I started to leave there, when they did, as I was taking the midnight train to Boston, but stopped on the way out to speak to some friends, so I did not see the tragedy."

SHANGHAI JUDGE IS ARBITRARY.

AMERICAN ATTORNEYS MUST BE EXAMINED THERE.

HIS REFUSAL to admit one prisoner to bail, and Clerk of Court Withholds Transcript of Case, Whereupon Circuit Court of Appeals Issues Habeas Corpus.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today issued a writ of habeas corpus today in the case of S. R. Price, in prison at Shanghai.

Price was arrested January 15 by Judge Willey of the United States Court for China, at Shanghai, of assault with a deadly weapon, and sentenced to six months in jail. An appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals was granted, but Judge Willey refused to admit Price to bail pending appeal.

The clerk of the court also refused to send to the Court of Appeals a transcript of papers in the case. Price's attorneys put the matter into the hands of San Francisco lawyers. Today the Circuit Court of Appeals issued an order that the Shanghai court admit Price to bail on proper security being furnished, the bail being fixed at $4000. The clerk of the court was ordered to forward the transcript of papers.

It is reported that Willey has been acting in a very arbitrary manner. He is said to have demanded that all American attorneys desiring to practice before him shall submit to examination, although such notice given previously, and then passing the examination and they were admitted to practice before his ruling changed.

DEATH IS SIN WAGE.

Woman Kills Her Despoiler.

HUSBAND RUSHES TO CELL, and Quickly Promises to Stand by Her in Need.

SHE IS WIFE OF MILLIONAIRE Gambler, Railway Magnate and Ward Boss.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Webster S. Guerin, part owner of the Harrison Art Company, with offices in the Omaha Building, La Salle and Van Buren streets, was shot and instantly killed today by Mrs. Flora McDonald, youthful second wife of Michael C. McDonald, at one time Chicago's king of gamblers, a political dictator and now multi-millionaire and elevated railroad magnate.

Guerin was shot in his office following a quarrel with Mrs. McDonald, who entered the place shortly before noon. When arrested Mrs. McDonald was trying to crawl through the broken glass of the office door, which she had shattered by forcing her head through it. The door was locked.

Mrs. McDonald's face was bleeding where it had been cut by the broken glass, and she was wedged in the jagged opening, unable to get either way. The police, who searched her at the Harrison Street Station, took a revolver from the bottom of her dress, where she had hidden it after shooting Guerin.

For an hour after she was arrested the police were unable to learn Mrs. McDonald's identity. She fainted at the office before the arrival of the police. When taken to the station she was so hysterical that she was unable to talk.

WOMAN RAVES IN CELL.

Mrs. McDonald was taken to the police station for several policemen to hold her to keep her from doing herself violence. She tried repeatedly to dash her head against the iron doors of her cell. She finally gave the name of Attorney Benjamin M. Shaffner, No. 1208 Ashland Block, who was immediately sent for. He identified the woman as his niece, Mrs. Michael C. McDonald, and the former wife of Samuel Barkley, a one time champion baseball player attached to the old Browns team of St. Louis.

Two reasons are assigned for the rash deed of the woman, who became hysterical the moment the shot was fired and who had not regained mastery of her faculties as she lay upon the floor in the Harrison-street Police Station tonight and pleaded to be told that Guerin still lived.

One was the story of a man who had tired of a woman who had given her all and who would cast her aside. The story goes that the woman was wild about the man. She became infatuated with him when he was a lad of 15 and that was thirteen years ago.

His relatives say he left the city and went to California that he might rid himself of a blackmailer. McDonald says that she followed and pleaded and promised and threatened until he returned, when it became the old, old story and she shot him rather than see him possessed by another. That is the story told by those closest to Guerin.

HINTS AT BLACKMAIL.

The other is just as sinister. The gambling king says his wife was the victim of a blackmailer. McDonald says that he often gave large sums of money to his wife and could never get her to account for their disappearance. He says it was the woman who went first to California and the man that followed.

M. C. McDonald was in his office when he was apprised of the tragedy by telephone.

Running to the street he leaped into a cab and went to the Harrison-street station. Gasping with emotion he was led to the cell in the basement where his wife was confined. As the door opened she rushed to his arms.

"Will you be satisfied if I am dead?" she said. McDonald kissed her and in a choking voice said: "No, no."

"I told you I would go away," she continued. "Do you want me to go?" McDonald, his arm around her, said: "No, no, I will stand by you."

Then Mrs. McDonald related briefly and hysterically her story of the tragedy.

CONFESSES TO HUSBAND.

"He forced me into a chair. I tried to go away. He tried to blackmail me," she said. "Oh, I will tell you all about it later. There are too many people here."

According to Inspector Wheeler, Guerin attempted to collect money from Mrs. McDonald some time ago under threats, and Mrs. McDonald went to California to avoid him.

Inspector Wheeler said he believed that Mrs. McDonald went to Guerin's office in the forenoon to pay him money and that the quarrel which led up to the murder followed. Mrs. McDonald, in said to have feared to tell her husband of Guerin's alleged attempt to obtain money from her.

McDonald told the police he had given his wife a great deal of money recently, in all about $2500, and did not know what she had done with it, but now believed she had given it to the artist.

This morning, before he left the house, he asked Mrs. McDonald what she was doing with all the money. She broke down in tears and cried: "I will settle in full today."

"This was the settlement," grimly said McDonald, in his statement to Inspector Wheeler.

WAS FRIEND OF FAMILY.

Webster Guerin had known the McDonald family all his life, and had been a friend of McDonald's two sons until his association with their step-mother. Mrs. McDonald is about 23 years of age. Guerin was 24. Archie Guerin, a younger brother, was in the office when Mrs. McDonald entered today. Webster turned to his brother and requested that he retire, but to this Archie objected, having a premonition of impending trouble. Then Mrs. McDonald also made the request, saying: "Won't you, please, allow us to have a private conversation for about half an hour." At this he left, and the tragedy quickly followed.

While in recent years Michael C. McDonald has shown little activity in Chicago political and sporting circles, living quietly at Michigan avenue and Forty-sixth street, in a costly mansion, his name twenty years ago was a power in both.

McDonald erected one of the finest mansions in a fashionable West Side district. He filled it with costly furniture and pictures, and to please his first wife, a devout Catholic, built a private chapel, in which services were said daily.

He lived in plenty and happiness until one day his wife eloped with the chaplain. He did not recover his spirits until he left his West Side palace, and found consolation with a second wife, a Jewess of rare beauty, who had been the helpmeet of Sam Barkley, the ball player.

Mrs. McDonald No. 1 also eloped with "Billy" Arlington, the famous minstrel, but was taken back by her husband a year later. Then came the elopement to Europe with the priest, Rev. Joseph Molant, and McDonald secured a divorce. According to Miss Nellie Fitzgibbons, aunt of Guerin, he went to Bakersfield, Cal., to escape Mrs. McDonald, but was followed there and induced to return to Chicago.

Mrs. McDonald has gone hopelessly insane, according to physicians attending her.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOKIO, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Three prominent Japanese officers have been interviewed concerning Kuropatkin's book on the Russo-Japanese War. Gen. Oku was scathing in his denunciation of Kuropatkin and doubtless to be taken back by her husband a year later. Then came the elopement to Europe with the priest, Rev. Joseph Molant, and McDonald secured a divorce. According to Miss Nellie Fitzgibbons, aunt of Guerin, he went to Bakersfield, Cal., to escape Mrs. McDonald, but was followed there and induced to return to Chicago.

Mrs. McDonald has gone hopelessly insane, according to physicians attending her.

Oku said he could not believe Kuropatkin had written so foolishly.

Not true to his reputation for taciturnity, merely the comment that it was strange the compilation of such a volume was permitted.

Nodou said he sympathized with Kuropatkin.

BALKS GREED FOR THE PARK.

Bowen Stops Deal Threatening City Interests.

Lobby Still Years for Million-Dollar Morsel.

New Consolidation Bill Is Introduced.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Just in the nick of time, Attorney W. M. Bowen of Los Angeles has succeeded in holding up a Senate bill, by the passage of which Agricultural Park in that city might have fallen a prey to designing persons who for years have looked with longing on this $1,000,000 morsel of choice real estate.

The bill now is in a fair way to such alteration as will protect the State's interest in the property.

This is simply another chapter of the long serial story that has been woven about the big tract of valuable land in the University section—one of the richest real possessions of the State of California.

For years, even back to the time when the property was worth little more than farm land, much farther out there has been a struggle in certain quarters to obtain possession of the big park, which in the first place was acquired as a site for the holding of agricultural fairs.

Political intrigue and business strategy have combined to gain title to the holdings; there have been numerous lawsuits, and attempts have been made before this to secure legislation that would loosen the grip of the State and make it possible for greedy speculators and politicians to gain possession, maybe for a song, maybe without the payment of a cent.

BATTLE BEGINS FINALLY WON.
Only within the last few months was the battle apparently won for the Sixth District Agricultural Association, through a decision by Judge Waldo M. York of Los Angeles in which the title was declared to rest with that organization.

On the defensive in that case were Walter F. Parker, political agent for the Southern Pacific, John J. Lynch, Treasurer of the Association, and E. T. Wright and W. G. Kerkhoff of Los Angeles.

Kasper, Cohen and C. E. Pecanin of Los Angeles, directors in the Sixth District Association, who were made parties to the suit, brought which the association sought to sue at least all about as to this to the park.

Members of the association who made the contest to retain possession of the property for the State are John T. Jones, George H. Murreck, John P. Reynolds, A. E. Carrier, M. M. Dobbin and Dr. L. M. Moore. Bowen acted as attorney for the board in the suit which was determined in its favor, though it was argued that it was supposed the title was at an end.

Whether by design or by mere coincidence, a bill of innocent appearance was introduced in the Legislature a few days ago by Senator Lynch of San Benito. Its purpose is to make an entire change in the manner of electing the State for agricultural park associations. Instead of the present forty-five districts, it proposed that there be but six. Los Angeles and several other southern counties would form the Sixth District. New boards would be appointed for each district.

SAW THE LITTLE JOKER.
The fault found with the bill by those interested in preserving the park at Los Angeles is that it wipes out the present board that has fought so hard and so persistently for its retention by the State.

Should the bill become a law, it is asserted that for a considerable period of time there would be no protection of the title as it has been protected in the past. It is feared that the way would be left open for former litigants or others to step in and grin hold that could be broken only with great trouble.

The Lynch bill was moving along swimmingly before the danger was discovered. It had reached third reading in the Senate and was about to be passed when Attorney Bowen arrived, and after a conference with Senator Lynch succeeded in having it referred back to the Committee on Finance until the points raised could be thrashed out. Atty-Gen. Webb also has taken a hand in the matter and there is a fair prospect that the bill will be modified greatly before it again is reported.

Fortunately, the Sixth District Association the bill calls for an appropriation of $30,000, and should it by any chance pass the Senate in its present form, it will strike a snag in the Ways and Means Committee, which has the last word respecting appropriations and which is holding down expenditures to the lowest possible notch.

Bowen has prepared an amendment whereby Los Angeles will remain a district of itself and not subject to the changes proposed by Senator Lynch, and the title to the park will not be endangered. Just how acceptable this amendment may be, remains to be seen.

At any rate, it is reasonably certain that at the palpable plot to gain possession of the property has met with a decided setback. It is a notable fact in connection with this proposed legislation that Zere Burke, the right bower of W. F. Herrin, and occupant of a rung on the lobby ladder, a little above that occupied by Parker, took an intense interest in a former session, when a similar plan was considered, but which failed of fruition. Burke swore when the measure lost. Just a straw, that's all.

DEADLOCK IN LEGISLATURE.
HELPED PRIMARY BILL.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—F.M.)
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21.—For the first time during this session there is a deadlock between the two houses of the Legislature over a measure in which one refuses to concur and the other declines to recede. For several days the Senate and Assembly have played battledore and shuttlecock with the bill, but no progress has been made.

The Senate added the proposed Constitutional amendment with an amendment providing that until the amendment is passed by the Legislature, the present primary laws shall remain in force.

This was interpreted by the lower house to tie the hands of the Legislature and prevent it from enacting any new laws in the event the Legislature failed to enact primary laws under the provisions of the Constitutional amendment.

Today after wrangling all morning over the adoption of joint rules, the late in the session, and following a sharp fight over the report of the Conference Committee, it had failed to agree, the lower house for the third or fourth time refused to concur in the Senate amendment and returned the measure to the Senate. The upper house in the afternoon again voted not to concur from its position and another Joint Conference Committee, composed of Senators Wright, Leavitt and Walker, and Assemblymen Johnson, Held and Stinson, was appointed. A stipulative agreement offered by

Wright, leaving to the Legislature the power to amend, extend or modify the existing primary laws in the event that a direct primary law is not enacted, will, it is believed, result in an agreement.

John and Walker opposing the Senate amendment declared that the house of the Assembly was at stake and said that they did not propose to let the Senate "kick" the lower house. Johnson also opposed the adoption of the joint rule because they permitted committees to report out measures at their pleasure. He wanted committees to report measures within ten days. The joint rules were adopted.

A bill providing for the direct nomination of candidates for State and Federal offices by the Assembly this afternoon. The measure is a substitute presented by the Committee on Elections. It provides for a "candidate's ballot" as primary elections. Each party will have a separate ballot which will contain the names of the candidates for all offices. A special ballot box shall be provided in addition to the ballot box now provided for by law for delegates' ballots. The candidate of any party for the nomination of any State, district, local or municipal office, by giving a ballot to the candidate, shall be deemed to have accepted the nomination.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Sacramento hasn't shed a muddy tear over the proposed to remove the State capital to Berkeley. The move is being pushed by a group of legislators, but a waggish Senator by resolution today proposed that this should not influence the action in the Senate. The bill is to be removed to the University town.

The Legislature is to Berkeley in a special train Saturday to view the site that is offered, and to assist in sopping up the excitement. The bill is to be passed by the Legislature, and the move is being pushed by a group of legislators, but a waggish Senator by resolution today proposed that this should not influence the action in the Senate. The bill is to be removed to the University town.

Political intrigue and business strategy have combined to gain title to the holdings; there have been numerous lawsuits, and attempts have been made before this to secure legislation that would loosen the grip of the State and make it possible for greedy speculators and politicians to gain possession, maybe for a song, maybe without the payment of a cent.

BATTLE BEGINS FINALLY WON.
Only within the last few months was the battle apparently won for the Sixth District Agricultural Association, through a decision by Judge Waldo M. York of Los Angeles in which the title was declared to rest with that organization.

On the defensive in that case were Walter F. Parker, political agent for the Southern Pacific, John J. Lynch, Treasurer of the Association, and E. T. Wright and W. G. Kerkhoff of Los Angeles.

Kasper, Cohen and C. E. Pecanin of Los Angeles, directors in the Sixth District Association, who were made parties to the suit, brought which the association sought to sue at least all about as to this to the park.

Members of the association who made the contest to retain possession of the property for the State are John T. Jones, George H. Murreck, John P. Reynolds, A. E. Carrier, M. M. Dobbin and Dr. L. M. Moore. Bowen acted as attorney for the board in the suit which was determined in its favor, though it was argued that it was supposed the title was at an end.

Whether by design or by mere coincidence, a bill of innocent appearance was introduced in the Legislature a few days ago by Senator Lynch of San Benito. Its purpose is to make an entire change in the manner of electing the State for agricultural park associations. Instead of the present forty-five districts, it proposed that there be but six. Los Angeles and several other southern counties would form the Sixth District. New boards would be appointed for each district.

SAW THE LITTLE JOKER.
The fault found with the bill by those interested in preserving the park at Los Angeles is that it wipes out the present board that has fought so hard and so persistently for its retention by the State.

Should the bill become a law, it is asserted that for a considerable period of time there would be no protection of the title as it has been protected in the past. It is feared that the way would be left open for former litigants or others to step in and grin hold that could be broken only with great trouble.

The Lynch bill was moving along swimmingly before the danger was discovered. It had reached third reading in the Senate and was about to be passed when Attorney Bowen arrived, and after a conference with Senator Lynch succeeded in having it referred back to the Committee on Finance until the points raised could be thrashed out. Atty-Gen. Webb also has taken a hand in the matter and there is a fair prospect that the bill will be modified greatly before it again is reported.

Fortunately, the Sixth District Association the bill calls for an appropriation of $30,000, and should it by any chance pass the Senate in its present form, it will strike a snag in the Ways and Means Committee, which has the last word respecting appropriations and which is holding down expenditures to the lowest possible notch.

Bowen has prepared an amendment whereby Los Angeles will remain a district of itself and not subject to the changes proposed by Senator Lynch, and the title to the park will not be endangered. Just how acceptable this amendment may be, remains to be seen.

At any rate, it is reasonably certain that at the palpable plot to gain possession of the property has met with a decided setback. It is a notable fact in connection with this proposed legislation that Zere Burke, the right bower of W. F. Herrin, and occupant of a rung on the lobby ladder, a little above that occupied by Parker, took an intense interest in a former session, when a similar plan was considered, but which failed of fruition. Burke swore when the measure lost. Just a straw, that's all.

DEADLOCK IN LEGISLATURE.
HELPED PRIMARY BILL.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—F.M.)
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21.—For the first time during this session there is a deadlock between the two houses of the Legislature over a measure in which one refuses to concur and the other declines to recede. For several days the Senate and Assembly have played battledore and shuttlecock with the bill, but no progress has been made.

The Senate added the proposed Constitutional amendment with an amendment providing that until the amendment is passed by the Legislature, the present primary laws shall remain in force.

This was interpreted by the lower house to tie the hands of the Legislature and prevent it from enacting any new laws in the event the Legislature failed to enact primary laws under the provisions of the Constitutional amendment.

ASKS NAVY AS PEACE SURETY.

President Outlines Policy of Improvement.

Japanese Incident Is Only Passing Example.

Sea Monsters Are Needed to Insure Quietude.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The conference at the White House yesterday between the President, Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Clegg, and the Chief of the Naval General Board and Rear Admiral Converse, has caused all sorts of talk in Washington. There is some Japanese war talk, but the general opinion is that the President gave his real views as to his idea of the future of the navy.

The President, it is understood, told the naval authorities that Congress has made provision for two of the most powerful battleships that have ever been constructed. The Navy Department must see to it that the plans for these vessels provide for the very highest degree of fighting efficiency.

Congress, the President said, has done its part toward the execution of the great naval program which the administration has recommended. Twenty millions of dollars are made available for the construction of two great battleships, and the country and Congress will both have cause for satisfaction unless these two sea monsters are made the most formidable of their type. The President made it clear to Admiral Converse and other members of the Naval Board that they will be expected to exert themselves in devising such improvements in naval architecture as will meet the demands upon them. He reiterated his belief that the naval rifles yet manufactured, and the possible use of such monster weapons against Japan was discussed.

In the talk of such powerful armaments, double barrels, increased thickness in protective armor and the possible penetration of projectiles fired from the largest naval rifles yet manufactured, and the possible use of such monster weapons against Japan was discussed.

The President insisted that naval superiority of the United States was much further toward preservation of peace with Japan than the most skillful negotiations by the diplomats of the country. The question of an increased naval force upon the Pacific was not discussed in conference with the Japanese, but it has been the intention of the administration for some time to increase the fighting strength of the Pacific fleet, and this intention was formed before the Japanese situation became acute and is to be carried into effect. What ships are to be sent to the Pacific has not been announced, but a sufficient force will be assembled there to successfully resist the attack of any oriental nation may put forth.

With regard to Japan it is understood that the President has gone as far as he intends to go in the way of making peace by explanation or apology. The Japanese situation, which indicates indignation upon the part of the Japanese because of the exclusion legislation, is causing no uneasiness at the White House. The President has settled the San Francisco school question to suit the Japanese and he has obtained legislation providing for the exclusion of the Japanese laborers in accord with the expressed wishes of the subject of Japanese.

No further steps will be taken to aid Japan in executing an international policy. The President has built up those sections with men who can be utilized for military purposes if Japan ever needs them. This is a government policy out and out.

The Japanese people affected do not agree with it. They do not want to go to Manchuria or Korea or to Korea, and they are very much interested in the higher scale of wages paid in this country. These bills aim to pick oranges, serve as bollboys and chambermaids in hotels, and enjoy the higher scale of wages paid in this country. These bills aim to pick oranges, serve as bollboys and chambermaids in hotels, and enjoy the higher scale of wages paid in this country.

So if it transpires that the Japanese government confronted by widespread speculation, and the Japanese people, finds itself forced by public sentiment in Japan to prefer further demands upon the United States, the President will firmly decline to entertain them.

Such a course might mean war in the indefinite future when Japan shall have recovered from the prostrating effects of her conflict with Russia and be once more in position financially and physically to test conclusions with a powerful opponent. The President, realizing this, regards it as more than policy that the safety of the country that its naval aid military forces both for purposes of defense and offense, shall be placed upon the highest possible footing with money provided by Congress. There is no danger that the United States through blind indifference to the possibilities of the situation will maintain a state of preparedness for any emergency that may arise.

AOKI IS SATISFIED.
APPROVE RECENT ACTIONS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—F.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Viscount Aoki called at the State Department today to discuss with Secretary Root the program to be followed in conducting negotiations in forming a treaty relating to the restriction of Japanese immigration in the United States. The Ambassador has been fully informed of all the steps leading to the passage of the Immigration Act, and in fact, had really suggested the adoption of measures to exclude Japanese without passports, he was not disposed to criticize adversely what had been done by Congress, and that he believed before the assembling of the next Congress the new convention will be ready for consideration of the measure.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.]

KAZAN (Russia) Feb. 21.—A correspondent of the Associated Press has returned here after a twenty-five day trip through Kazan, Samara and Ufa, three provinces of the twenty affected by famine.

The population everywhere was found to be absolutely dependent on outside relief. The present state of affairs is characterized by slow starvation and extreme misery.

The relief machinery organized by the government, the Red Cross, the American and private societies is working with reasonable smoothness and few localities are utterly neglected. But the government's slowness of action is a serious handicap.

Persons of thirty-six pounds of rye per person a month is most inadequate and this amount is cut by eighteen or twenty pounds by the cost of transportation and milling. Men and even women between the ages of 15 and 55 are excluded from receiving the government ration. In the province of Ufa the peasants are in such a weakened condition that supplementary assistance will be necessary for thousands to make it possible for them to survive until spring.

The correspondent found sporadic cases of scurvy in the province. In Kazan province there is a terrible malady of the eyes, due to the general and chronic mal-nutrition, but the response of widespread outbreaks of hunger typhus are serious. It is continually growing more difficult to prevent epidemics from mowing down the enfeebled population.

Aside from the distribution of government rations, the famine fighting is carried on by the free kitchens originated by Count Tolstoy in 1891, and maintained privately by the Red Cross and the Samaritan. In Ufa 250,000 and in Samara 100,000, many of whom are children.

The relief work in Kazan is hampered by quarrels between Gov. Strilinsky and the Liberals. The Governor interfered in the distribution of non-official relief for fear of political agitation, and in one village he poured out soup from the hands of the pensioners. Doctors and nurses fighting typhus were arrested.

The correspondent witnessed the arrest of the superintendent of the kitchen at a village of a charge of feeding persons who were not entitled to it.

The correspondent's overland journey from Kazan to Samara through Aldayev and Prase showed him other conditions typical of that region. Here scurvy prevailed, but the diet kitchen person 2 cents a day, and making a fairly successful fight against the disease.

Children are the first prey of the famine and in many cases the school buildings have been converted into kitchens where the youngsters are sheltered and fed by the Red Cross.

A lamentable feature of the situation is the mistreatment of the government officials and the processes of the local prefects have used the ration to influence the elections.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Robbed and Beaten.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—W. R. Hughes, a resident of Nevada, was held up last Tuesday night near the Sixth-street entrance to Golden Gate Park, by three high-waymen who robbed him of $100 and some valuable jewelry. He received such severe injury at the same time that he has been under a physician's charge ever since.

Book-keeper Arrested.
CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—A dispatch to the tribune from Knoxville, Tenn., says: As a sequel to the supposed accidental killing of Chalmers Vestal at his residence at Na-ter, Putnam county, on Sunday, W. S.
Bywater, Vestal's book-keeper, was arrested here last week on board a train, in the company of Mrs. Vestal, the widow. He is charged with the murder. Mrs. Vestal wanted to remain here with her son, but he persuaded her to return home.

San Franciscoan Gets Off.
CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—H. B. Ehler of San Francisco, who several days ago attempted to shoot his way out of the City Detective Bureau, was discharged from custody.
He was found to be sane and declared he had no recollection of the attempt to kill the officer. He said that for two days preceding the act he had been drinking a good deal of whisky. He was introduced to Capt. O'Brien and did not recollect having seen him before. He was allowed to go after promising not to drink liquor again to excess.

Binger Hermann's Case.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—In the trial of Representative Hermann today a charge of perjury was made against him when he was asked to swear that he had not been in contact with the defendant and the facts as they existed when the true

STROTHERS CASE OPENS.

CULPEPPER (Va.) Feb. 21.—Phillip and James Strothers were placed on trial today, charged with the murder of their brother-in-law, William F.
Bywaters, on the night of December 15 last, within a few hours after he had been married to their sister, Viola Strothers. The "unwritten law" will be the defense and the trial promises to be sensational.

Mrs. Bywater has been in a critical condition since the night her husband was killed, but it is believed she will be able to testify for the prosecution.
William Bywater was a clubman, business man, politician and generally a "good fellow" about town. One of the defendants, James Strothers, is a leading lawyer of Welch, and a member of the Legislature. There is much feeling between friends, political and otherwise, of the Bywaters and Strothers families and the legal fight will be a notable one.

After court convened Commonwealth Attorney Keith said it would be inexpedient to secure a jury from this county and the court decided to have the jurors brought from Shenandoah county, fifty townspeople being summoned. Court adjourned until Monday.

At Boston announcement was made yesterday that the Culmet and Hecia Mining Companies would take charge of the management of the Occochee, Centennial and Allouez Mining companies.

Beverly Hills
—A SUCCESS BEFORE IT STARTED—

Beverly Hills was planned to be the most superb residence district in Southern California.

The actual development is surpassing the plan. All the improvements that money and brains can devise have been combined with the remarkable natural advantages.

Miles of broad, oiled streets lead into the foothills. Broad sidewalks, gas, electricity, telephones, a perfect sewer system, etc., give the conveniences of the city. There is not a modern advantage that you can think of that Beverly Hills will not have.

The new subway means 15-minute car service.

FROM A COLD TO PNEUMONIA IS A SHORT STEP
Many a cold ends in Pneumonia. Cure it before it gets a good start by using the dry and antiseptic air HYOMEI

The no cure—no pay remedy. No dosing of the stomach—just breathe it in—direct to the affected and inflamed membrane and its wonderful healing virtue will effect a complete cure in one day or less. Thousands who have used nauseating drugs and nostrums with continued failure testify to its prompt curative power.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs $1.00 at all drug stores—and costs nothing unless it cures coughs, colds and catarrh—Mail orders filled—write for interesting free booklet.

Smith's Hyomei Co. Buffalo, N. Y.
19 Batavia St., Boston, Mass.
Having a very severe cold, I used your Hyomei. At the end of six hours I was bright as a gold dollar. I shall never be without your Hyomei.

STEAMER FOUNDERS.

Include any of the star artists. The party was made up of members of the chorus returning to their homes. They made arrangements directly with the railroad company, so that we are not yet able to get an exact list of their names.

Arthur Herbert, one of the King's men, who was journeying to the continent, also was lost.

The Berlin left Harwich at 10 o'clock last night upon the arrival of the London train with the greater number of passengers who subsequently lost their lives. The steamer should have reached the Hook of Holland at 6 o'clock this morning and would have then proceeded to Rotterdam.

Capt. Parkinson, who appears to be the sole survivor, was on his way to Amsterdam to join his vessel, the Myrmidon, to bring her back to Liverpool. Describing the disaster he said the night was the most terrible of all his experience. Never had he seen such weather before. So terrible was the gale that he remained all night completely dressed on deck. The Berlin already was near the North Pier, and the passengers, many of whom had not gone below, were beginning to breathe easily again after the terrible crossing when the ship struck with a violent shock, then suddenly the boat broke in twain. Capt. Parkinson hurried to the bridge to offer Capt. Precious his help, but just as he put his foot on the ladder he saw the captain and the pilot swept away by the sea.

POOR SHOW FOR THE DYSPETIC.
Poisoned Stomach, Clogged Brain, Wavering Ambition, Failure—Unless He Seizes His Opportunity.

There's no good reason for any man's remaining a dyspeptic—a burden to himself and family, when he should be a producer.

There's only one reason why he has been a dyspeptic, and that is because he has overworked his stomach so that it cannot secrete the juices and work the muscles necessary to digest the food.

Failure Staring Him in the Face.
What the dyspeptic must do is to help the stomach out. It is full of a poisonous pile of fermenting, nauseating food. Instead of being assimilated and carried by the blood to make nerve and muscle and rebuild the waste tissues, it lies there inactive.

First, take an unobtrusive cathartic and get rid of this food.

Second, get a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets from any drug store and take one at each meal and at bed time. The tablet will do the digesting while the stomach is regaining its forces. Before the box is gone, your stomach will be vastly relieved if not cured. Why? Because Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the very elements which your stomach possesses when it was healthy—pepsin, diastase, golden seal and others. It was because your stomach kept losing its supply of these digestive ferments that you became dyspeptic.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work simply, surely and without injury. They are not a medicine, but the working out of a scientific principle upon the food you eat.

Hundreds of sufferers in far worse condition than you have been positively cured of dyspepsia by these wonderful little tablets. Forty thousand physicians in the United States and Canada recommend them.

If you are uncertain and wish further proof, send us your name and address today for a free trial package, which we will gladly mail you at once. F. A. Stuart Co., 74 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

The image is a vertical, high-contrast, black and white photograph. It depicts a textured surface, likely the cover of an old book or a piece of weathered wood. The left side of the image shows a series of vertical lines and grooves, suggesting a binding or a grain. The right side is a solid, dark black area, creating a sharp contrast with the textured surface. The overall appearance is aged and worn.

REACH NO CONCLUSION.
Chamber's Committee Confer All Day
About Mass Meeting—Burlington

Telegram to Legislature.

The Harbor Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Consolidated Fishermen's Union held their conference yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce on the subject of calling a mass meeting relative to legislative and consolidation matters. No definite action was reached but another conference will be held in a day or two.

The following telegram was sent to the Legislature by the Chamber of Commerce:

"The Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco contributes $3,000.00 to be paid and expended on the same terms as the same time, and in the same amount as the City's contribution of equal amount; and if the bill increasing common labor to 34 a day does not become law before the first of April it is to be held in 1913, and approve an appropriation by the Legislature."

EVER ABOUT

LOCAL EVELYN NESSITS TELLS

THEIR TROUBLES.

Pathetic Case Arouses Interest and Chief of Police of Venice Wants to Know About Ship Hotel—City Detectives Appealed to by Mother of the Girls.

"You have a hopeless task, Madame. It is best you walk two blocks in Los Angeles without seeing man speaking to her. As for Venice, there isn't a place in the town where you can't go into trouble."

This is the reply little Lorna Busted told her mother who visited her in prison yesterday.

Lorna Busted is one of the twins of account of whose young and sentence to Whittier two gay girls came from Sacramento last Tuesday.

Their pathetic case has excited the greatest interest among public spirited women of this city. Three or four times they called on both girls yesterday with the intention of learning from them the history of their sad case. The girls are lost astray in this city.

The Chief of Police at Venice also sent in a request to these women to find out whether they could about the connection of the ship hotel at Venice with this affair. It is claimed that the place has been under suspicion for some time because the girls were not found in melting mood. They were defiant and sullen, and occasionally gave way to policy in their behavior.

Lorna finally told her visitors that she would be given credit at the ship hotel for the night and that she had returned in the St. Mark's Hotel at Venice or this city. In town the place where rooms were stated would usually be taken up by the girls. If they were street, or the Boston, or Second near Broadway.

At the St. Marks she said they registered but thought that they were not required to register at the two places mentioned in the city.

It is further ascertained from the stories of the girls that the city detectives were appealed to by the mother. The first time Lorna stayed in the city.

Busted went to the Central Station for help. The detectives found the girl in Small's office next day, but took no further action.

Both girls pleaded hard with all the visitors to leave something done so that they might get home again. "If we go there, it will probably suit in our becoming worse than we are now," one of them truthfully observed.

No decision has been arrived at in District Attorney's office relative to his taking custody of the girls. He is considering perjury, as suggested by Judge Wilbur. It is somewhat doubtful if there is a technical case against them. Busted went to the Central Station yesterday from Sacramento and will at once pass on the case personally.

NOTES OF THE FAR EAST.

India's imports for the seven months ending October, 1908, increased $28,666,666, and the exports $20,930,333, over the same months of 1907. American mineral oils continued their increasing demand.

In 1908 the gold mines of India produced 177,390 ounces, as compared with 62,415 ounces in 1907. Karachi and Bombay, India, now have a foreign exchange business, which connects them with Trieste and Brindisi, on the Mediterranean.

Sugar-refinery business is booming in Australia. One company has added $1,000,000 capital, and $1,750,000 added to the capital of the old companies; sugar cane acreage is largely increasing, and two refineries to cost $1,000,000.

Tokio Horticultural Company, capital $175,000, founded to deal in agricultural products and fruit.

Japanese military and naval circles have agreed to postpone the defense of the country until after the war.

On a sound basis, says the Tokyo correspondent of the London Times, Japan has collected $20,000,000 from Russia, expected to pay, says the London correspondent of the London Times.

The arbitration court, created by the Australian Government, to settle disputes between Wales to adjust labor disputes, has been found defective to such an extent as to be of little value. This appears from a report made by the Hon. Mr. James Hayden, president of the court.

The court has loaned a loan of $5,000,000 to the government of the United States, and $15,000,000 at 4½ per cent., with London, Paris and Berlin brokers.

A large part of the new loan is for railroads.

Hongkong's shipping movement exceeds that of the port of London. From January to December, 1908, 1,450,000 tons, respectively. Vessel entrances and clearances at Hongkong are estimated at 1,450,000 tons, according to Japanese newspapers there are only two instances in that country's maritime history of vessels of 1000 tons being disappearing.

Japan's railways, says the Railway Bureau of that country, earned gross revenue of $115,000,000 in April 1908, an increase of $5,000,000 over the preceding twelve months. The net earnings were $115,000,000, an increase of $2,250,000.

NEW ZEALAND IN 1908.

The following statistics of New Zealand for 1908 are officially issued by the Government of that country:

Population	950,000
Exports	$80,500,000
Imports	74,250,000
Wool	1,000,000
Output of sawmills	10,500,000
Output of grain mills	5,200,000
Output of breweries	2,800,000
Output of dairies	1,800,000
Sheep	20,108,477
Horses	228,513
Cattle	1,280,000

The exports consisted of, in order of importance as named, wool, frozen mutton, phosphorus, Kawia gum, cheese and oat straw exported. The value of $43,875,000. These goods

This image shows a vertical, dark, and heavily textured strip, likely a close-up of a book's binding or a piece of aged, weathered paper. The surface is uneven, with numerous fine, vertical lines and grooves running down its length, suggesting a woven or fibrous material. The color is a deep, mottled black or dark grey, with lighter, greyish areas where the texture is more pronounced or where the material has worn away. There are no discernible patterns, text, or figures; it is a study in texture and decay.

A Dream That Came True.

Lawyer (cross-examining witness): Are you sure you didn't dream that, Mr. Ruggles? By the way, do you believe in dreams?

Witness: Not as a general thing, but I know they come true sometimes.

Lawyer: Oh, they do, do they? Can you mention a specific instance?

Witness: Yes, sir. You remember, Mr. Ketcham, you paid me $5 the other day that you had been owing me a year. Well, I had dreamed the night before that you were on the street and paid it. I was so strongly impressed with that dream that I hunted you up the next day, you recollect, and dunned you for it.—[Chicago Tribune.]

FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 22, 1907.

SYMPATHY AT FLOOD SAVES ADDED PANGS.

Gas Explosion Victims in Desperate Need of Assistance Given, as Also Are Some of Those Who Were Dependent Upon Them.

FORTITUDE, patience and real heroism are shown by the sufferers from the explosion which wrecked part of the Hawson building a week ago last Wednesday. In spite of the agonies suffered the crippled girls and men show a spirit of cheerfulness which is soul-inspiring.

When Emma Haggerty was taken to the Emergency and General Hospital with others of the injured she retained all her senses and in spite of her two poor crushed legs calmly told Dr. Keyes, "You had better tend to those others first."

Miss Haggerty will be crippled for life. But she is patient and brave. When May Anderson was placed upon the operating table at the Receiving Hospital her only thought seemed to be for her mother, whose sole support she was. "What will mother do now?" she exclaimed.

Miss Anna Hooper, the brave girl who has won the hearts of all the nurses at the Emergency Hospital, will also be a cripple with only one leg. Her left leg has been amputated, besides which she is suffering from other injuries. Happily Miss Hooper is not as destitute as most of the other victims of the accident.

But though all of the victims are brave, one's heart goes out to the young women whose lives have been made so much harder to bear by injuries. Handicapped as women are to battle with the world, it is doubly hard for them to make their way in life by loss of limb or otherwise injured.

HELP NEEDED AT ONCE.

There is hardly one of the injured who does not need financial assistance, and some of them need it at once, while others who were dependent upon them need help from the sympathetic as much as do those who are suffering, but at least are not hungry.

Two of these cases especially need assistance right away, and will receive it today from the fund subscribed through The Times.

The family of J. M. C. Fuentes, the tailor who was blown up and died the same day, Mrs. Frances J. Anderson, mother of May Anderson, who is now at the Pacific Hospital and whose life yet hangs by a thread.

"Oh, if I was only strong and well," cried Mrs. Anderson yesterday in her room in the Blaine lodging-house, No. 215, East Fifth street.

With the tears running down her cheeks she told her daughter, her sisters and her boys, "I am the poorest of the poor."

Mrs. Anderson told how she had borrowed $25 to pay in advance the hospital bill and doctor's fee.

"I wanted her to go to the best hospital, for her life means everything to me. Oh, what would I do without my darling," and for a time Mrs. Anderson was too affected to speak.

ALL DEVOTED.

She told of the devotion of Miss Anna Jones, a nurse at the Pacific Hospital, who has devoted herself to her patients day and night since the accident. She spoke of the doctors who have done their best to save the life and limbs of her daughter, and thanked God that there was still hope that her May might still live with both legs intact.

But she shuddered when she told of the operation which has been performed upon her grave girl. The pieces of bone had been removed, one piece over three inches in length. She was induced to go to the operation of herself and her present circumstances. Then she confessed that she was destitute, with hardly enough money to pay for one meal. But she has some friends, poor they are, ready to divide their mite with her.

"And I wish to express my thanks for what has been done for us, and to those who have expressed their sympathy in so graceful a manner," said Mrs. Anderson, feelingly.

Mrs. Anderson was born in Bangor, Me., and lived there most of her life, although her daughter May was born in Carmel, Me. She has another daughter, Mrs. Edith E. Lane, who lives in San Diego. Mrs. Anderson lives with her husband and runs a small rooming-house with just enough room to pay for her own expenses.

OLD AND BLIND.

Another sad case is that of Mrs. Ann C. Crawford of No. 442 East Third street, mother of Miss Anna Crawford, 46 years of age, who was a waitress in Cressy's restaurant and was killed. Mrs. Crawford is 72 years old and blind. She and her two maiden daughters lived together in the modest bungalow, and Miss Anna and Miss Crawford who support the family out of their earnings. They had recently managed to save enough money to pay for a new stove, but it is not entirely paid for yet.

Both Mrs. Crawford and Miss Crawford were prostrated yesterday over the death of their daughter and sister, and were both in bed and could not be seen. A kindly neighbor is caring for them.

Still another case which calls for heartfelt sympathy and help is that of Miss Emma Haggerty, now in the Emergency Hospital. Her father, Charles C. Haggerty, a tailor, was killed in the wreck. But Miss Emma had for two years supported herself, as still does her sister, Miss Cicely.

THE BISHOP LIKES US.

Report That He May Go Back East Declared to Be a Fairy Tale.

Somebody has been guessing that Bishop Conaty of this city may be sent back to Massachusetts, to take the place of Bishop Strong, recently deceased, but his secretary said last night that it is a fairy tale and there is no possibility of such a thing.

It is no secret that Bishop Conaty could go to San Francisco as the successor of Archbishop Montgomery, deceased, if he desired to do so, but Los Angeles is good enough for him, and he has no desire to change, even for higher honors, it is declared.

In the same hospital where lies Blumenthal is his companion, Harvey A. Holderman, who was at the very point of the explosion when the terrific crash wrecked the restaurant.

Holderman may be a cripple for life. When his companion's mother, Mrs.

THINKS GOLD HAS COPPER.

Thief Takes Heavy Bag of Coin, Picks the Wrong One, All Pennies.

With a thousand shining pennies on his hands, and $1000 in gold out of his reach, a disappointed Los Angeles thief has reason to kick himself today. He took the wrong bag of coin, else he would be richer.

Yesterday during the lunch hour Joseph Dryfus, manager of Tait's cafeteria, went to the banks and got a number of sacks of pennies, which are much used in cafeterias, and a sack of gold—$1000. He was busy and left the bags on the safe, intending to count the money and put it in the safe later.

Meanwhile the cashier went out, and the thief, who evidently knew about the gold, made off with one of the bags. Dryfus saw him walking up the stairway slipping the heavy bag into his pocket, noted that he had taken only $10, and did not even pursue him.

"What's the use?" he said. "I saw that the gold was still on the safe, and I was too busy to chase a man for a load of pennies."

It is thought the police may set the snare when he tries to dispose of his coppers.

IOWA PICNIC POSTPONED.

Gathering Will Be Held in Eastlake Park on Wednesday of Next Week.

The Iowa people, many thousands of whom were expected to gather in Eastlake for the annual picnic today, lost confidence in the weather man yesterday afternoon and decided to postpone the affair.

The picnic will be held on Wednesday of next week at the same place, and will include all the features planned for today. One of the enthusiasts of the organization, however, believes there will be 4,000 on hand.

THE TIMES FUND STILL GROWING.

Previously acknowledged by The Times $350.65 Received yesterday $328.95

Total Times fund $679.60

Previously reported by all other newspapers (except Times) $140.75

Total contributions $820.35

The suggestion has been made that in the distribution of the fund, the public be informed of just how much the various hospitals exact from the victims of the gas explosion, so that their friends may know exactly what the expenses have been, and if the fund is not sufficient to meet these expenses, that another appeal be made. This plan may be adopted.

The plan which probably will be adopted is that of having Mayor Harper appoint a committee of well-known persons to take charge of the money, to make a careful investigation into the needs of the various victims and to dispense assistance in proportion to their needs. It is believed that each of the sufferers would receive a just proportion of all the money collected. The Mayor has signed a bill authorizing the appointment of a committee, and unless some better plan is suggested, such appointments probably will be made.

Following is the list of contributions to The Times fund yesterday:

- Mrs. F. H. F. $100; Wm. Garland, $25; E. J. Huntington, $25; cash, $10; W. P. Ball, $10; C. L. Huff & Co., $10; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Watkins, $10; E. and Grace, $10; J. C. O'Connell, $10; Geo. Giles, $10; E. G. Wood, $5; employees of L. A. Farming and Milling Co., $2.25; Mrs. F. R. Strong, $5; Miss Emily M. Reicher, $5; a friend, Mrs. T. W. B. $5; P. G. OVERFLOW TO PASADENA.

More Shriners Coming Than Was Expected, and Crown of the Valley Hotels Contracted For.

The executive committee of the Shriners met yesterday deciding that it will be necessary to contract with the large and elegant tourist hotels of Pasadena for several thousand of the Shriners coming to this city in May.

That more Shriners are coming than was expected is shown by reports received by the committee from various cities throughout the country. From Pittsburgh came the apologetic announcement that one train of twelve solid Pullmans is not sufficient, and two trains of the same size will be chartered. From Philadelphia, a similar announcement. More Shriners and their friends want to come than could be accommodated, and another special train has been chartered. Other cities sent like reports, and the committee is confronted by the proposition of housing probably the largest number of visitors ever in Los Angeles at any one time.

It is understood that Pasadena will lay herself out to great extent to bid the Shriners welcome and make those who go there as comfortable as possible. The committee has been chartered, and arrangements have been made to take care of the overflow thousands in Pasadena.

Annexation went down to defeat in the city yesterday by a vote of almost two to one. Inclement weather added to the real estate boomers in their effort to bring the blanket strip inside the city's gates, but enough taxpayers showed through mud and rain to the polls to win by a handsome majority.

In the outlying territory annexation carried by about the same ratio that it was defeated in Los Angeles.

The total vote inside the city, excluding Hyde Park, was 1161 for annexation and 2377 against, making a total of 3538 votes cast. This is less than the average vote of a ward at a general election.

Highland Park made a strong fight for the blanket strip. The vote there was 263 for to 74 against. This was sufficient to swing the entire First Ward for annexation.

The Fourth Ward rolled up the banner majority against annexation. This record was marred, however, by a failure of the election officers in some precincts of that balliwick to report for duty.

But for the inclement weather and consolidation of polling places annexation would doubtless have been beaten by a vote of at least five to one. Those who favored annexation were actuated by a pecuniary interest: it was an object for them to hunt up the polling places, and the average citizen made a feeble effort to locate the elusive booth, then ducked into a street car out of the rain and went downtown to business.

The little suburb of Hermosa went for annexation almost unanimously; the vote there was 41 for and 1 against. Late last night a vigilance committee was reported to be searching for the kicker.

"SHOESTRING" FIRST.

The shoestring voted for the first time in the city, and displayed a beginner's predilection to get in wrong. Hyde Park failed to report at all. In Green Meadows and Gardena annexation carried by two votes.

No report was received at the City Hall last night on the result of the annexation vote at Coliseum. Annexation carried in the other outside precincts by a vote of 279 to 102.

Numerous complaints were made at the City Hall during the day that it was impossible to find polling places or that the polls were not open. A more active work on the part of the boomers might have won it. The election to them, partly by default.

Consolidating the polling places to save expenses rendered the problem of locating the festive booth one filled with vexation and difficulty. There will be no consolidation when the Owens River bond election is held.

When City Attorney Hewitt went to the supposed polling place at Ninth and Burlington yesterday morning he found only a vacant lot. It was then about 9 o'clock. Looking down Burlington avenue half a block away he spotted Commissioner Hubbard of the Board of Public Works, standing in the rain and eying solemnly a delapidated, water-soaked tent. Not an election officer was in sight.

COLLAPSE THERE.

The City Attorney walked down and joined in the inspection. Just as they were about to go inside, the tent gave one doleful fall and collapsed.

Commissioner Hubbard's son came with a hammer, and the three men went in. Then Hewitt and Hubbard, sworn in each other in as election officers, opened the supplies, and started to hold the election. For two hours they remained in charge, enrolling thirty-six voters. Then they fled in innocent bystanders into the service, and went to their day's work at the City Hall.

For the day this polling place registered 12 votes for annexation and 21 against.

Failure of the election officers to report may lead to a legislative inquiry at the City Hall as to the manner in which these officials were appointed. Honorable precedent gives to each Councilman the selection of election officers in his ward, but Councilman Pease said last night that he had nothing to do with the appointment of the Fourth Ward election officers.

Those named for the Fifteenth Precinct were J. R. Mathews, president of the State Bank and Trust Company; H. J. McGuire, former City Street Superintendent, and W. D. Campbell, a retired merchant. Not one of the three reported for duty.

POLICE SEEK POLITICIAN.

Fresno Attorney Leaves Home After Receiving Telegram and His Wife Can't Find Him.

Information that A. C. Williams, a Fresno attorney and politician, was seen again on Broadway yesterday caused the local police to renew their efforts to locate him.

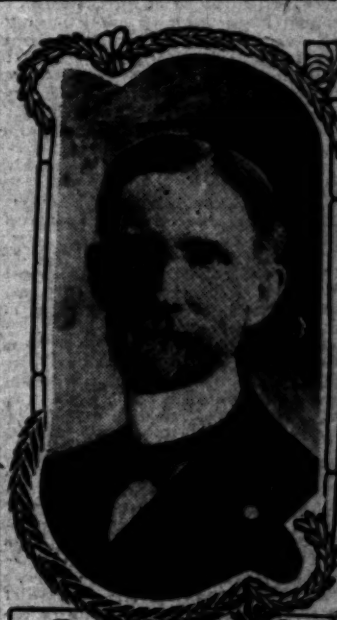

Williams disappeared from his home on February 9, after receiving a telegram. As he was leaving the house, he remarked to the sender of the message was liable to cause him trouble.

After he had been away a week his wife went to San Francisco to search for him, but did not find him. Mrs. W. J. Dickeys of Fresno recognized Williams on a street car on Broadway four days ago and told the police. Yesterday the police say. According to reports from Fresno, Williams did not leave there alone.

DR. E. S. NORTHUP.

PATHEPIC STORY OF LIFE'S END.

NORTHUP PASSES OUT AND RELATIVES COME NOT.

Affectionate Letters Received from Wife and Daughters, Who Are Lying Ill in New Jersey—Saw More Than Thousand Enrolled in His Sunday-School Class.

Dr. Emerson S. Northup, a practicing physician of this city, died yesterday at the Orthopedic Hospital, at the age of 61 years, where he had been confined to his bed since early in January.

The last years of the life of Dr. Northup form a most pathetic tale, and it is doubtful if real life ever presented a more touching ending of an earnest Christian life.

He came to Los Angeles seven or eight years ago, following a serious attack of pneumonia at Kansas City, and at the time was estranged from his wife.

Miss Clara Northup, one of his daughters, lived with him here, and became well known as a church vocalist, and Mrs. Northup made a visit to them for the first time, about a year ago, but soon went back to Kansas City, where she was a subject of a trust which they did not talk even to their most intimate friends.

Some time last year Mrs. Northup was taken ill, and Miss Clara went East to see her, and she, too, was taken seriously ill. Recalling they went to Winfield, N. J., to the home of a brother of Mrs. Northup, and there the other daughter, Mrs. Mary Northup, lived at the time, and was taken sick also.

This was the condition of things when Dr. Northup was compelled to go to the hospital, suffering with lung trouble, and thus separated by the illness of his wife and daughters, he was to be at the bedside of the other.

Whatever the differences may have been between him and his wife, there was no bitterness between them, and during his last days the names of his wife and daughters were much upon his lips. The most affectionate letters were received by him at the hospital from both the wife and daughters almost daily, though they, too, are very ill, and none of them will be able to come to his funeral.

To further add to the pathos of the case, Mrs. Jennie Martin of Monrovia, a sister of Dr. Northup, has been visiting her mother-in-law at Winfield, N. J., and was within a day's travel of Los Angeles when her brother died, and she expected to see him today. A brother lives at Duarte, and another at Sierra Madre, the latter having come here from Kansas City about a month ago, and neither were at the bedside of the sick man when he died.

The deceased was a most conscientious and exemplary man, active in every good work in the First Methodist Church. His particular work being as a pastor of the Sunday-school, and his department increased to an even 1000 before he died, and he had that gratification. The number of pupils raised from less than 200 to 1000 on last Sunday. He was a persistent visitor in the homes of these people, before he was prostrated by disease, and was greatly beloved by all who knew him. Many of them visited him at the hospital to express their sympathy, and one of the most regular callers was Dr. Robert McIntyre, pastor of the First Church.

Dr. Northup was a veteran of the Civil War, having served his country as captain of a company in the Thirty-fourth New York Regiment, and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The body will be removed to the funeral parlors of Brown & Root this morning, according to his last request, but no arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

REAL ESTATE MAN CUTS.

Peeked Knife Into Cheek of Car Conductor in Quarrel Over Transfer.

A quarrel over the leasing of a transfer led J. L. Van Every, a real estate dealer at No. 133 North Main street, to stab Conductor J. E. Adams in the conductor's room at the Los Angeles-Pacific Fourth street station, last night. Only a slight wound was inflicted in Adams' cheek before he overpowered and disarmed Van Every. Van Every was taken to the City Jail and Adams to the Receiving Hospital.

The real estate man was very reticent. When he was approached for his side of the story he said: "You want to know my name? Well I know it and that is sufficient." Papers, letters and cards found on his person established his identity. On the papers his address appeared as No. 1725 New Hampshire street.

When questioned Conductor Adams said: "When the man got on my car at Temple block I saw him for the first time. I went through the car asking the passengers if they would have transfers. I am certain Van Every did not speak. It was not until I went to the trolley station, near Hill on Fourth street, that I again noticed the man."

"He approached me there and asked me for a transfer. I told him to go to the conductors' room and I would give him one. He followed me, cursing me. Hardly had we stepped inside when he cut me. I disarmed him and led him out. Then he made a motion to strike me and I knocked him down and jumped on him. I kept him until the patrol wagon arrived."

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE JAY.

The Civil Service Board has called a special meeting for Saturday noon to pass a resolution placing the laborers in the parks outside the pale of civil service. It is the first indication of the return of the spoils system made possible by a new charter amendment.

Attorney Barker notified the Mayor and City Attorney yesterday that he represents clients who will oppose the turning of sewage into the new outfall; he says the conduit is not water tight, and the leakage will contaminate the Inglewood water supply.

Resolutions were adopted by the Council yesterday pledging the laborers to defer consideration of other bond issues until the $20,000,000 of Owens River securities are voted.

H. J. Watkins, a legless peddler, was sentenced to one year in San Quentin in the Superior Court yesterday for smuggling morphine into the City Jail.

John H. Travers of Gardena, who is suing the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway Company for a large sum, has won a preliminary injunction.

C. B. Williams, wanted as a witness in the examination of William McKinley for the alleged attempt to kill his uncle, cannot be located, and the case has been postponed until tomorrow.

Developments in the strange case of J. Hugh Jones, once a wealthy ranchman and miner, tended to show in the Police Court that the man, who was accused of burglary, was made an irresponsible being and a thief through a blow on the head sustained during a runaway two years ago. Jones' wife retained Earl Rogers to defend him in the hope of sending him to the hospital for the insane.

AT THE CITY HALL.

CIVIL SERVICE GARMENT RENT.

SPOILS SYSTEM MAY CONTROL IN CITY PARKS.

Commissioners Call Special Meeting to Pass Resolution Empowering Superintendent to Employ and Discharge Laborers at Will—Non-Partisan Councilmen May Protest Service.

To the voters belongs the park department. At noon Saturday the Civil Service Board will hold a special meeting for the purpose of withdrawing the protective cloak of civil service from the laborers on the parks.

Power is conferred on the Council and the Civil Service Board under a new charter amendment to place the laborers in city departments outside civil service. This amendment was proposed, ostensibly, to facilitate the construction of the Owens River conduit. Its first application is to be to the parks where there have not been a dozen changes in the personnel of the laborers in two years.

Introducing politics into the parks is the first rent in the civil service garment; others are to follow. Under the terms of the amendment a department chief may rid himself of his two head deputies, provided the civil service is willing, without preferring charges.

Members at the City Hall are to the effect that this amendment is to be applied soon to the city clerk's office and to the health office. Those who would be affected by the partial abolition of civil service are listed as follows: Non-Partisans in the Council to protect them. Before the removal can be made effective concurrent resolutions must be passed by the Council and the Civil Service Board.

On the Civil Service Board are three politicians, men in whom the Tammany organization reposes implicit confidence. They can be depended on to place a department outside the pale of civil service at any time when such action is considered to be for the best interests of the organization. The main difficulty will be experienced in lobbying the necessary resolution through the Council.

If the park laborers are placed outside civil service there will be an immediate change in the personnel of the crews at Eastlake and Westlake Park. Dissatisfaction has been expressed by the commissioners at the condition of the grounds at Westlake. They say the city is not getting value received for the money spent in salaries there.

Park Superintendent Morley said last night that civil service has done nothing for the parks.

"I could get better men if I were permitted to appoint and dismiss at my discretion," said Morley. "Civil service has its limitations."

Asked whether he would have the appointing power in case civil service is abolished, Mr. Morley said: "I shall surrender none of my rights; at least I shall have something to say about the class of men employed."

Service in the parks is exacting but not onerous. There is less heavy drudgery for the laborers than for those working on the streets and for the water department, and the surroundings are much more congenial. Men who once secure employment in the parks are apt to retain their position. This accounts for the fact that there is not one change in the personnel of the water department and fifty in the water department.

In municipal circles to place the laborers in the parks outside the pale of civil service is regarded as tantamount to including the department in the spoils of a successful political campaign.

BOGIE MAN ON OUTFALL.

LEAKAGE MIGHT POISON WATER

The bogie man has made his appearance on the outfall sewer. Attorney Barker waited on the Mayor and the City Attorney yesterday to tell them that his clients, an Inglewood Water Company, may seek an injunction to restrain the city from sending water through the big conduit, as the leakage would contaminate the Inglewood water supply.

This is a renewal in a new form of the ancient objection to the conduit that is not water tight. Engineers employed by Stansbury & Powell estimated that enough water would seep through the walls into the conduit to fill one-fourth the big box. Attorney Barker is the first to raise an objection against what would leak out.

Chairman Anderson of the Board of Public Works of the city said that the objection of the water company is a "conduit that will be practically water tight," said Mr. Anderson yesterday. "We have modified the original specifications so as to reinforce the sides and bottom of the conduit to prevent possibility of a crack. It is the opinion of the engineer and the board that there will be no leakage."

Attorney Barker's original suggestion was that the city should avoid the route of the sewer so as to avoid the wet section in the Inglewood high-

OWENS RIVER FIRST.

Resolved, that the question of issuing fire, bridge and sewer bonds be deferred until after the calling of the election for the purpose of voting on the issuance of bonds for the Owens River water project.

The above resolution was adopted unanimously yesterday by the Council. The committee of the Whole in the face of strong opposition from a committee representing the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association. Secretary Zeehandelaar argued that if the Owens River bonds are voted first, it will be impossible to vote the fire bonds later. The people will not stand for a second bond issue until after the first.

Mr. Zeehandelaar said that merchants who could not get insurance in the country have applied to Lloyd's in London.

This statement was promptly confirmed by E. J. Louis, representing a committee of the insurance companies. But the Council, secure in the fact that the inside information possessed by the proponents of the fire bonds, the Owens River bonds, is a situation as critical; there are still companies willing to write fire insurance at existing rates.

President Pease said that the need of better fire protection is pressing, but that we can wait for the fire houses, better than for the water. The houses and engines would amount to little in fighting a fire if the water is not here.

Councilmen Blanchard and Wallace joined in championing the immediate issue of the water bonds. The opposition is heart. The committee representing the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association asked that the Council make a decision at once. Thereupon the legislators voted unanimously in favor of the Owens River bonds. Blanchard suggested that the fire bond election, if such is found to be necessary, might be called as soon as the water bonds are voted.

Dromgold will insist that bonds for drainage be included in this election. An attempt will be made to vote a couple of hundred thousand dollars in bonds for the outfall sewer.

CITY HALL WAITS.

Houseman T. E. Day of the fire department pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of interfering with the fire. He was fined $500 without pay.

Houseman Partridge admitted to the Fire Commission that he secured a leave of absence by making a "diplomatic" application. His diplomacy cost him a $100 fine.

The Fire Chief has sent to the Council a recommendation that a certain "brood" of firemen be ordered, and that the manufacture of brooms be prohibited.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

LEGLESS MAN IS CONVICTED.

GOES TO PRISON FOR TAKING MORPHINE INTO JAIL.

1. Is Discovered in One of Leather Boots Worn on His Stump—Prisoner Makes Attempt to Escape Punishment by Plea of Drunkenness. Year in San Quentin.

Henry W. Watkins, a legless peddler of pencils, was convicted of a felony yesterday in Department One of the Superior Court. Watkins had been charged with smuggling morphine into the City Jail. He pleaded not guilty.

Practically the jury, which Wednesday night found Anton Basold guilty of murder in the second degree, was impeached to try the cripple's case. Watkins, waiving his privilege of delay, was sentenced to one year in San Quentin.

Several witnesses testified to Watkins' application at the City Jail for lodging. His search by officers, which resulted in the discovery of $4.38, his being ordered away. Refusing to depart, it seems, Watkins was arrested on a charge of taking morphine into the lower tank. Repeated requests to be placed in the upper tank, where, it appears, he had friends, were refused. Finally he was searched again, and a two-ounce bottle of morphine was discovered inside one of the leather boots which he wears on his stumps.

Watkins was placed on the stand yesterday to testify in his own defense. He claimed that he had been drugged eight days at the time of his application for admission to the jail, and did not know what he had done. He had no memory of having bought it. He stated that he was a user of morphine, the habit having been formed by him in the army.

melancholia. In the course of the examination in Department Two of the Superior Court yesterday, Dr. H. G. E. Alford admitted his inability to gauge the Japanese mind, and the difficulty he found in determining the mental condition of the Oriental by the standards of sanity in the Occident. The fact of Iguchi's insanity seemed to be established, however. He had made threats of killing a former employer, who, it appears, had been ungrateful and kind, because she refused to re-employ him. The fact, yesterday, was listed and drawn, and of a greenish hue.

ACUTE MANIA. Mrs. Florence Minrich, who was in Department Two of the Superior Court for examination yesterday because she had become violent and threatened to take her husband's life, was committed. Mrs. Minrich has been three times in Highland and once in Patton. She is afflicted with acute mania.

NEW CORPORATIONS. The Newport Development Company, capital stock $200,000, which $500 later set up; the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Company, organized under the laws of West Virginia, said that it had New York. Its purpose is to build and operate a large dam and other development work; capital stock, $1,000,000.

THE INFERIOR COURT.

SAD STORY IS BEHIND CRIME.

UNFORTUNATE MADE BURLAR THROUGH RUNAWAY.

J. Hugh Jones, Once Wealthy, Is Arraigned in Police Court—May Go to Asylum—Buckley Shop Men Making Technical Fight—Cost and Vest Tightened.

A tragedy came to light in the Police Court yesterday when J. Hugh Jones was held under $1000 bonds for trial in the Superior Court on a charge of burglary. The man, a former wealthy ranchman, is now a pauper.

Instead of being a pauper, the man is believed to be a lunatic. A blow on the head, sustained in a runaway two years ago, brought him eventually to the prison's dock.

Before that injury J. Hugh Jones was a wealthy man. He lived at Acapulco, owned a large ranch and had extensive mining interests. Yesterday his wife sat in the courtroom listening anxiously to each word that fell from the lips of the attorney, Earl Rogers. She breathed a deep sigh when the prosecution spoke of the advantage of an examination before a sanity commission. In the asylum there was possibility of cure, and no prison term.

The evidence in yesterday's case was so convincing that Jones had gone to a South Main street lodging house. He had never been in the place before. He entered a room and was seen "carrying away a pair of hair brushes. And so he was bound over."

Washington's Birthday--Its Lesson

COMMERCIALISM AND PATRIOTISM—The former transitory as applied to things mundane; the latter, the fundamental principle upon which rests our right to participate in or to enjoy the benefits accruing to ourselves or others—individually, as a corporate body, or as a nation. It is well to stop at times and consider these things well. The anniversary of the day that gave birth to OUR FIRST PRESIDENT is remembered throughout this great United States with a patriotic spirit that speaks plainly to all other nations that the American people have a reverence for the name of George Washington; and that his life devoted to this nation's good, teaches a spirit of patriotism that will be handed down from generation to generation of American-born children, preserving the integrity of our nation, and giving that moral courage to every citizen to strike down the alien or traitor who belittles the memory of him—the FATHER OF OUR COUNTRY—that we, his children, so fondly cherish.

The commercial life of this country is merited, in the eyes of all others, by the unanimity of purpose and action which has made our national greatness; but the great pulsing heart of the body politic is fed by the great artery of patriotism; and once again on this 22nd day of February we voice the feelings of every true American, of every religious faith, that our highest duty is to our country—our greatest homage is to our flag—our fondest memory is of Washington.

Continuation Sale Japanese Ware

The hundreds of people who yesterday bought pretty Japanese ware at this big sale is only another proof of the leadership of the big Hamburger store in real value giving. The first day of the sale, even though it did rain, was a splendidly successful one; not only from our point of view, but also from the customer's. At any other store in the city you would have to pay fully twice or three times the actual prices we have named. Remember, we purchased this lot of fine ware at a great sacrifice, and the prices at which we are selling at are
